

A Magical Dragon

This is a story about a young dragon from the realm of magic, chosen as a child to be the protector of human children in the earthly realm, while the adult dragons were the protectors of special human adults.

This story is about one of those young dragons who was sent by a grandmother, although she was unaware she had done this, to protect two brothers who were suffering from bad dreams.